Moulton Players	Entertainment	It all started in February 1946. A handful of people, all lovers of theatre, met together to form the Moulton Players. Aims were simple - to encourage people to use their dramatic talents for the entertainment of others and to provide a Senior Citizens' Christmas Party for the village. The players have developed over the last six decades. For many years productions were staged in the Manfield Hall - a special stage was precariously erected for each production - until in 1972 when, through the generosity of the late Sterry Ashby, one of his Long Barns at the Manor House was acquired and converted by the Players to form the Barn Theatre.
